

Q&R Listen. Better.

Your real time 'Pulse' Research Partner

Who?

Our online analytical tool allows you to take the Pulse of any audience, asking any question/s on any topic, at any time.

Why?

We work with you and your clients to create the right questions. Questions that deliver actionable answers.

How?

This provides the tangible proof points for critical actions that will make a difference to your clients' business.

Where?

The Pulse Check generates real time data translated into simple infographics that everyone can understand.

When?

The whole process can take as little as five working days.

Testimonial

The team at Q&R is well placed to help me get real time data I need. They offer a slick professional service with smart advice and counsel on what questions to ask and valuable insight on what the data is saying.
